Subject: Call for applications for outgoing student mobility to Cracow University of Economics, Poland under Erasmus+ programme

The University has entered into an Inter-Institutional agreement 2019/20-2020/21 with Cracow University of Economics (CUE) under Erasmus+ Programme. As part of the programme, an outgoing student mobility (funded by the programme) is available. The mobility is open to full-time Ph.D students of the University from the field of Economics or Finance. Under the mobility, the student will spend winter semester 2020/21 (tentatively September 2020 to March 2021) at the Cracow University of Economics (CUE), where he/she shall cover academic activities for 30 ECTS from among the courses to be delivered at the University during the Semester, followed by the examination at CUE, Poland which the candidate shall be required to clear.

Full-time Ph.D students of the University from the field of Economics or Finance, interested in availing the outgoing student mobility, are invited to apply (routed through Dean of the concerned school). The applications must contain the following documents:

1. Evidence of full-time Ph.D registration;
2. Statement of purpose (SoP) for applying for the mobility;
3. Document certifying English proficiency at UG level or beyond;
4. Result of the PhD coursework at the GGSIPU;
5. List of publications during Ph.D; and
6. List of conferences/workshops/other events (National/International) attended during Ph.D

The applications may be submitted by 24th January, 2020 in the Directorate of International Affairs, Room No. 306, D-Block, GGSIP University campus.
