Dated: 23.10.2020

Circular

All Deans/ Directors of University School of Studies/ Centre of Studies are advised that they should review their academic programmes and see if still market demand is there for these programmes or there is need to start some new programs and discontinue with the existing programmes.

There is also need to identify new academic programmes as per the market demand so that University can improve the academic environment. As Deans, they have to take the affiliated institutions with them and provide help to them in bringing excellence in their academics which will in turn help to improve the brand image of the University.
