NOTICE

IPR Week Celebration by the IPR Cell, USLLS in collaboration with IPU-IPR Cell

The Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Cell at the University School of Law and Legal Studies (USLLS), in collaboration with the IPU-IPR Cell at the Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, is organising an IPR Week from 22nd to 26th April, 2024 to commemorate World Intellectual Property Rights Day and World Copyright Day.

IPR Week aims to raise awareness about the importance of protecting and promoting intellectual property rights (IPRs) in fostering creativity, innovation, and economic growth. The event will feature a series of engaging activities and informative sessions, including guest lecture, panel discussion, quiz competition, movie screening, case study analysis competition, patent drafting competition, paper presentation and never-seen-before IPR exhibition.

The IPR Week will witness various competitions and brainstorming sessions.

1. The Quiz Competition will cover a wide range of topics related to Intellectual Property Rights, including patents, trademarks, copyrights, and related legal frameworks. Participants will have the opportunity to showcase their knowledge, compete with peers, and learn from experts in the field. We extend a warm invitation to University Students of any curriculum to participate in the Quiz Competition and contribute to the success of IPR Week.
