Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, 'A++' Grade accreditation with NAAC, established by Government of NCT of Delhi under the provisions of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University Act, 1998 read with its Amendment in 1999. Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University strives hard to provide a market oriented professional education to the student community of India in general and of Delhi in particular, with a view to serving the cause of higher education as well as to meet the needs of the Indian industries by promoting establishment of Colleges and Schools of Studies as Centres of Excellence in emerging areas of education with focus on professional education in disciplines of law, engineering, technology, medicine, education, pharmacy, nursing, etc.

About University School of Law and Legal Studies, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University

Established in 2001, University School of Law and Legal Studies envisages advancement of institutional expertise in the area of legal research and education by augmenting academic and professional excellence, developing critical and relentless engagement with legal theory and practice, synergizing law, legal research, legal education and action to further the quest for justice. Ours was the first University Law School established in the vicinity of the Supreme Court, Delhi High Court, various subordinate courts, commissions, tribunals and various monitoring offices of national and international voluntary organizations. University School of Law and Legal Studies aspires to open new vistas in the arena of law, legal studies, theoretical and clinical legal education through an incessant endeavour towards developing academic potential, critical analytical ability, advocacy, counselling and mediation skills so as to fully equip the students with learning which is intellectually stimulating, socially vital and professionally enriching. USLLS became the first law school established by the State Government of Delhi. It figured 19th nationally in the NIRF rankings for 2023. The College has been ranked amongst the top 20 law schools in India by BW Law School Rankings of 2023.

SAMADHAN

THE ORGANISER

Samadhan, the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, was established in May 2006 to promote mediation as a method of alternate dispute resolution. It is managed by a team of trained mediators from the Delhi High Court Bar Association, overseen by a panel of judges and advocates. The Centre handles both court-referred and pre-litigation disputes, covering areas like business contracts, matrimony, real estate, and consumer issues. Samadhan has resolved over 300 cases in its early years, helping settle more than 400 related cases. Its infrastructure has expanded with additional rooms and video conferencing facilities to accommodate growing demand. The Centre conducts training programmes for new mediators and maintains a panel of experts to assist with complex disputes. Samadhan has gained recognition as a leading mediation centre, with over 80 matters listed daily. 265+ mediators contribute to its success, which is supported by the judiciary and the public. The Centre has been instrumental in changing perceptions of conflict resolution. Samadhan continues to be a model for effective dispute resolution in India.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The National Legal Services Authority in association with the Mediation & Conciliation Project Committee, Supreme Court of India has conceptualizes the special, “Mediation for the Nation”, campaign. This campaign is being launched across the length and breadth of India. To celebrate the spirit of the campaign, ADR cell USLLS, Centre for Extension and Outreach Activities in association with trainers of Samadhan, Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre is organising 40 hours certification program in Mediation.

The 40-hour mediation training programme, organised by USLLS offers law graduates and lawyers a certified opportunity to enhance their credentials in alternative dispute resolution (ADR). The course equips participants with core mediation and negotiation skills, develops soft skills like active listening and empathy, and provides hands-on experience through case studies and simulations. With certified mediators in high demand, this programme serves as a valuable stepping stone for career advancement while also fostering networking with industry experts.

ABOUT THE EVENT

Participants will engage in dynamic learning through discussions, case studies, role-playing exercises, and simulations, each carefully designed to enhance mediation skills and provide a comprehensive understanding of the processes involved in facilitating constructive dialogue and amicable dispute resolution. This certified 40-hour mediation training programme, organised in collaboration with Samadhan – the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, is particularly valuable for law graduates and young professionals aspiring to build a career in mediation, offering them a credible and robust platform to develop expertise in this specialised field.

The programme will also provide an enabling environment for networking and professional exchange, encouraging participants to share insights, experiences, and perspectives that enrich the collective learning process.

Upon successful completion, participants will acquire both a strong expertise in the principles of mediation and the practical competencies necessary to apply these skills effectively in legal and professional contexts.
