Final Instructions for Anugoonj 2016

This is to inform all students of Indraprastha University who will be a part of Anugoonj 2016 as volunteers, participants or in any other capacity that the final things to remember for the festival are as follows:

1. The entry for the festival will be through only one gate designated for the purpose after showing their college/University Identity cards.
2. All students are advised to use public transport for their convenience. The nearest Metro station to the University is Dwarka Sector 14. All students travelling by the Metro are requested to deboard at Sector 14 and take the University bus, shared auto, rickshaw, etc to the University campus.
3. Students who come by their own vehicle will have to park it outside the campus in a single lane only on the road outside the campus or in the designated parking spaces.
4. All students participating in the different events of the festival are requested to ensure that they report punctually for registration. Registration for the events will take place at the registration desk next to the office of the Directorate of Students' Welfare and the Indian Bank office inside the premises of the University at 9 AM on 11th February 2016. All participants of all teams must report positively for registration.
4. All students are requested to ensure that they carry their College Identity Cards with them. Entry to the festival will be only after the students show his/her Identity Card to the appointed person at the Gate.
5. Students will not be allowed to enter the festival with prohibited items. Such items have been listed in an earlier circular put up on the University website. All students are requested to not carry any such articles with them, otherwise they will be asked to throw them before entering the university.
6. All students are requested to maintain discipline. Any act of indiscipline will invite strict action against them including cancellation of their participation in Anugoonj 2016.
