

Guru Gobind Singh
Indraprastha University

Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University

Sector 16C, Dwarka, Delhi-110075

Objective

Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University established by Government of NCT of Delhi under the provisions of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University Act, 1998 read with its Amendment in 1999. The University is recognized by University Grants Commission (UGC), India under section 12B of UGC Act. The explicit objective of the university is to facilitate and promote “studies, research and extension work in emerging areas of higher education with focus on professional education and also to achieve excellence in these and connected fields. In its commitment to provide the best of facilities to its staff, the university has set up a Daycare center with generous funding from University Grants Commission (UGC) funds at the state-of-the-art main Campus in Dwarka. Setting up of this facility is an effort by the university to extend support to the women employees and to provide them with a conducive environment that will encourage and empower them to contribute effectively to the university community.

This initiative shall enable us to contribute meaningfully to the cause of Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE). This facility is envisioned to be responsive to the needs of the formative years of the child to be read in an environment, which supports physical, emotional and mental well-being. This in turn shall help create an inclusive, open and vibrant space in the university, which helps in the growth of the individual and the collective.