Subject: Interactive Session on March 6\textsuperscript{th}, 2014 on the occasion of Women's Day

The Centre for Human Values and Ethics invites you to an Interactive Session to be held on March 6\textsuperscript{th}, 2014 in the C-Block Seminar Hall from 11.00AM -1.00PM.

On this occasion, Ms. Kavita Srivastava and Ms. Bhanwari Devi will interact with students and faculty of the University. Listening to Kavita Srivastava, a Human Rights Activist and Bhanwari Devi will not only enlighten the audience about oppressive system and also inspire to stand against the unjust system.

In a patriarchal society where women have been a constant site of violence in private, public and work space to reassert man’s dominance over her, it becomes pertinent that the students and the faculty of the University should be told the narrative of grit, determination and struggle by a low caste woman. Hers is, in many ways, an eternal saga of human endurance and survival in a hostile environment, a fight for the human values of dignity and respect, transcending class, caste and societal boundaries.

Centre for Human Values and Ethics also invites the faculty members and students for the screening of the film Bawandar, made on Bhanwari Devi’s life, to be followed by a discussion on the film. The programme schedule is as follows:

- Inauguration: 11:00 AM to 11:15 AM
- Interaction with Bhanwari Devi & and Kavita Srivastava 11:15 AM to 12:30 PM
- Discussion 12:30 PM to 1:00 PM
- Lunch 1:00 PM
- Film Screening and Discussion: 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM

All the students and faculty members of the University are cordially invited to the interactive session and film screening.
