Goonmeet Singh Chauhan

Goonmeet is an Urbanist, Architect, and futurist with a vision to bring forth Newness that is both 'Delightful' and 'Useful'. With a focus on creating design with a purpose, he is passionate about transforming the lives of people and truly believes that our shared destiny can be altered through pragmatic ideation and collective action fairly rapidly. In his recently published book 'Invertonomics', he has proposed a 'Dream for India', a dream steeped in Idealism, borne of Inclusivity, and tempered with Pragmatism. The book offers eight transformative ideas to solve some of India's most fundamental and chronic problems like Social Inequity, Air Pollution, Sanitation, Women Safety, Education, and Decadent rural economy and Governance deficit.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21

4:30PM - 5:30PM

In these times of uncertainty of Pandemic there is an intense need to discuss strategies to promote resilience, resourcefulness, and creating environments that facilitate a sense of belonging and agency—especially for youth of color. This event as part of the 'The Courtyard; Socio Series' is an attempt to support the young minds to sieve through these difficult times through discussions with trained experts from the field of behavioral sciences. To help them respond, recover and steadily move towards self-resilience.

"WE DO NOT NEED MAGIC TO CHANGE THE WORLD, WE CARRY ALL THE POWER WE NEED INSIDE OURSELVES ALREADY: WE HAVE THE POWER TO IMAGINE BETTER."
