

ABOUT IICHE

IICHE is just a professional body of Chemical engineers in India. The Institute represents the chemical engineering profession in India. Many members of the Institute serve on various technical committees of the Government of India and of chemical and allied industries.

Benefits:

- A member can join numerous seminars, symposia, workshops, training programmes, special lectures, industry visits and other professional activities. Participation in such programme is either free or may involve a subsidized fee.
- Since IICHE is the recognized forum of chemical engineers in India, membership of the Institute itself is considered as a professional accomplishment of a person.
- A member can join the four-day Annual Professional Meet called CHEMCON on a subsidized fee.
- Various professional meets organized by IICHE acts as a forum for interaction and networking of the professionals.
- The student members may join as member of seminars specifically meant for them and can participate in a number of competitions like essay competition, quiz competition, best paper award, etc. One of such popular seminar is SCHEMCON which is organized by one of the IICHE Student Chapters every year.
- IICHE is a member of the Engineering Council of India, which is responsible to award the 'professional engineer' status to a competent person. As such, the corporate members of IICHE will have the advantage of getting the 'professional engineer' status on fulfillment of specified criteria.

The IICHE welcomes all into its fold - the aspiring chemical engineers of the future. The membership of the Institute student chapter in itself is an accomplishment that stands one in good stead in one's future career. The horizon of chemical engineering is fast widening with newer disciplines merging with it and new ideas emerging. As a member of the Institute, one gets plenty of opportunities to share the platform with many well-known academics and established professionals in one's field. These interactions help one to constantly update and equip oneself so as to keep pace with the fast-changing professional scenario.

This official page aims to update the members about the kaleidoscopic events and activities orchestrated by the Chapter
