HRidaya - The HR Club of USMS organized Bheja Fry as a fun and interactive event to introduce students to core Human Resource concepts. The event was scheduled for 3rd September 2026 at 11:30 AM in the D-Block Seminar Hall, GGSIPU Dwarka Campus. Sponsored by The Belgian Waffle Co., the event blended quizzing, performance, and strategic thinking into a competitive format. This report summarizes the event's objectives, structure, participant engagement, and key takeaways.

2. Introduction and Objectives

The primary objective of Bheja Fry was to create a high-energy learning platform where students could engage with HR terminology and workplace concepts in an interactive setting. The key objectives of the event were to:

- Familiarise participants with commonly used HR terms and concepts in an engaging, game-based format.
- Encourage teamwork, quick thinking, and collaborative decision-making under time pressure.
- Provide a platform for creativity and stage confidence through improvisational performance.
- Test participants' general awareness of the corporate world, its people, and its history.
- Foster a spirit of healthy competition while keeping the overall experience light-hearted and enjoyable.

3. Overview of the Event Rounds

3.1 Round 1: HR Tambola (Elimination Round)

The opening round put a Human Resources spin on the classic game of Tambola. Each of the 35 teams received a ticket containing HR terms instead of numbers. The host announced the terms one by one, and participants marked them on their tickets. Teams claimed standard Tambola combinations (Early Five, Top Line, Full House, etc.), verifying their familiarity with HR terminology such as Recruitment, Attrition, Onboarding, and Exit Interview.

3.2 Round 2: Act & Play (Elimination Round)

18 teams advanced to the second round, which shifted the focus to creativity and performance. Each team received a humorous HR or workplace situation and had between 45 seconds and 1.5 minutes to present an entertaining short act on stage involving all three team members. Performances were judged out of 25 marks across criteria including Creativity, Acting & Expressions, Understanding of the Situation, Team Coordination, and Audience Engagement.

3.3 Round 3: HR Jeopardy (Final Round)

The final round brought the top 5 teams into a Jeopardy-style knowledge showdown. The game board featured five categories (Top Roles, Corporate Places, EMOJIFY, HR History, and Mergers & Misfits) with Easy (200 points), Medium (400 points), and Hard (600 points) difficulty levels. The round tested participants' broader awareness of the corporate world, rewarding knowledge and quick decision-making.

4. Event Format and Participant Engagement

The progressively structured format, moving from a fun icebreaker to performance and finally to a competitive finale, ensured sustained engagement and kept energy levels high. The event witnessed active and enthusiastic participation. Participants displayed sharp recall during Tambola, brought humour to Act & Play, and showcased strong general awareness and teamwork during HR Jeopardy.

5. Key Takeaways and Winners

The event concluded with the following teams securing the top positions:

- 1st Position: Team Maggaj
- 2nd Position: Team Three and Thrivers
- 3rd Position: Team HR Homies

The event successfully highlighted that:

- Familiarity with HR terminology can be built effectively through interactive, game-based learning.
- Creativity and improvisation are valuable skills that translate well into workplace scenarios.
- Quick thinking and sound decision-making under time pressure are essential in real-world settings.
- Teamwork and coordination play a decisive role in determining performance outcomes.

6. Organization and Conclusion

Bheja Fry proved to be a well-organised and thoroughly entertaining event that successfully combined HR learning with fun and competition. The proceedings began with the Dean of USMS, Mrs. Shalini Garg, and the Faculty Coordinator, Mrs. Deepti Prakash, gracing the occasion to support the participants. Operations were smoothly managed by 14 volunteers. By blending multiple formats, the event offered participants a holistic introduction to Human Resources, standing out as a refreshing addition to HRidaya's calendar.
